Dear all,

In November, we pause to Remember loved ones who have died and those fallen in war. This is so very important to who we are. I would encourage you to let this period of reflection spill into Advent – a period of waiting for Jesus’ return where all will be restored. “We will remember them” turns into “Come Lord Jesus” as we continue to navigate the realities of living in a beautiful but beleaguered world. For the sake of sanity, get any necessary Christmas preparations done, but may-be resist any premature celebration so we can do the necessary work of prayer. Christmas will be all the sweeter for it! Kathryn

A little bit of Bible:

Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. ... For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first ... And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14,16,18
